Your Legacy Matters

Your generosity has the power to shape the future of children's health for generations to come. When you partner with ACPeds, you help ensure that trusted resources, physician education, and effective advocacy continue to strengthen pediatric care and support the well-being of children and families.

A planned gift is more than a financial contribution—it is a reflection of your values and your commitment to future generations. By including ACPeds in your estate plans, you create a lasting legacy that will equip pediatricians, advance child-centered care, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of children for years to come.

We are here to help you explore your legacy and planned giving options.

What is Planned Giving?

Planned giving is the process of carefully selecting the best methods and tools for making a meaningful impact on an organization—tailored to your personal, financial, and philanthropic goals.

With thoughtful planning, you can support the American College of Pediatricians (ACPeds) in a way that reflects your values while creating lasting benefits for future generations of children.

Ways to Give

- Stocks and Bonds
- Retirement Assets
- Gifts of Cash
- Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD)
- Donor Advised Fund (DAF)
- Trusts
- Insurance Policies
- Wills
- Estates

Include ACPeds in your estate planning goals by working with your attorney or financial advisor.
